

THE CENTER FOR BIBLICAL TRAINING FAQ'S

Who can participate in the course?

The CBT courses are designed for those who wish to expand their knowledge of God's Word, grow deeper in the application of His truths in their lives or wish to develop their ministry skills. These are not generally basic discipleship courses. Valley encourages new believers to first participate in the Discovery Series of studies in order to develop a solid foundation in Scripture and their knowledge of God.

What are the course requirements?

Classes are usually held weekly. Participation in class discussions is crucial to the success of the study and to a comprehensive understanding of the material. Preparation for the class sessions usually involves homework each week. Students are asked to do reading, respond to discussion questions and, at times, to prepare projects related to the study.

What is the cost of the course?

With each course offering, Valley asks each participant to cover the expense of materials. The expense varies according to the course being offered. At the same time, we feel so strongly about the importance of these courses that we do not want anyone to be excluded due to finances. Assistance is available as needed.

What can I personally expect to gain from the course?

You can expect to see Scripture revealed in ways you've never seen before. You can expect to gain greater understanding of the church and your role in it. You can expect to learn from others in the class. You can expect to see your faith and passion for Christ grow. How's that for promises?! Bold indeed, but that is what we can expect when we set out to dive deeper into God's Word with others. God will be there.

How do I enroll for the course or learn more about the Institute?

Please contact Pastor Mike Sindelar for questions concerning upcoming courses or to register for the Center for Biblical Training contact CBT@valleyfree.org.